Tennessee Rats and Armours Play

The Armours open their series of two games with the Tennessee Rats at Rourke park this afternoon. To-day's game will start at 4 o'clock to give the crowd ample time to see all of the battle.

Manager Williams of the Armours is undecided whom he will send on the mound to hurl the first game. The choice is between Andy Graves and Skupa, the big South Side south-paw.

Sullivan's arm is still troubling him, and he will be unable to pitch either game of the series. Dyke will hurl for the Armours Sunday.

Manager Brown of the Rats will pitch Dennie, one of the greatest colored patchers in the profession. Dennie comes second on the strike-out record. He is next to none ex-cept Donaldson.

The Armours have a new infielder, an Indian from Carlisle. "Chief Injun" is new to Omaha baseball fans.

Following is the lineup of the teams:

Armours.		Tennessee Rats.
Smith	Catcher	Marshall
