Chicago, Sept. 22nd—The American Giants, considered the weak sister of the league, after disposing of Whitworth, leading pitcher of the world, Francis Star, 3rd baseman, Barber, rock outfielder, Charleston, greatest outfielder in the world, their chances did not even look encouraging, but when the Gong sounded, Foster surprised the base ball world, with a machine that has never been surpassed in Chicago, by any of the great clubs he has handled.

American Giants have defeated every club in the league, winning, 4 out 7 from Detroit, 9 out 12 from St. Louis Giants, 9 out 10 from Cuban Stars, 11 out 15 from Kansas City, 8 out 9 from Dayton, even Chicago Gaints have not beaten them one game. So no one can say it was a flash in the pan, but the best club in circuit.

The great Bacharachs, headed by Cannon Ball Redding, String Bean Williams, and two other crack pitchers and Eastern Stars, were also decisively beaten, by American Gaints, 4 out 6 games.

Knoxville Gaints, Champions of Southern League, Challenged American Gaints for World's Championship, and will meet Sept 21, 22, 23, 24 at Birmingham, 25, 26, New Orleans, American Gaints then play, Birmingham, 27, 28, 29, 30, meet Knoxville at Knoxville, Oct. 1, 2, and final game of series at Chattanooga, Oct. 3rd.
