

Negro Fans To Have Own Brand of Ball

Negro baseball fans, who have attended games at Heinemann Park this spring in larger numbers than ever before, are to have some baseball of their own brand and color for the next three days.

The Indianapolis A-B-C team, a member of the Negro Western League, will arrive here Saturday morning from Birmingham and play the Caulfield Ads at Heinemann Park Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

The Caulfields, who play the A-B-C's, will represent New Orleans in the Negro Southern League.

New Orleans States, New Orleans, LA

Monday, April 19, 1920, Page 16, Column 5