

BOB M'CLURE WILL PITCH FOR COLORED TEAM SUNDAY

Star Moundsman From Indianapolis A. B. C s Will Pitch to Lifera.

NOELL FOR OPPOSITION

Bob McClure one of the best slabmen on the staff of the Indianapolis A. B. C s is the man picked to hold the Lifera hit less when the Fort Wayne Colored Giants oppose them at League park Sunday afternoon. Manager C. I. Taylor of the Indianapolis colored team, in sending McClure for the engagement here comments that he is one of his best men and will prove hard to beat.

The Colored Giants' line-up now includes Rudy Lima, one of the best backstops in this part of the country, c, McClure Indianapolis p, Selden Van Wert star ss Riddle ex-Chicago Giant, lb Petie Baker local in fielder sb Buggs a talented player to know Kansas City if Cooper a recent acquisition of and Wells of

The insurance men will stick to their regular lineup with Noell doing the mound duty, and Hoffer receiving six straight victories have given the Lincoln club a world of confidence and they are intending to finish the remainder of the season without a defeat

The Tigers and Kidders will play a preliminary game at 12:30 o'clock the third encounter of a series to decide the amateur championship of the city. The main game starts at 8 o'clock Frank Far will umpire. Both games will be for free admission.

Fort Wayne News and Sentinel, Fort Wayne, IN

Friday, September 17, 1920, Page 25, Column 2