

INDIANA BLACKS EASILY DEFEAT CAULFIELD ADS

The Caulfields tried a lefthanded pitcher against the Indianapolis negroes at Heine-munn Park yesterday, but could fare no bet-ter against the "national leaguers." The score was 10 to 3. Indianapolis won all three games of the series.

The locals outbit the visiting negroes, but stupidity on the baselines kept them from making their hits count. They were again outfielded.

Two umpires were on the job when the game started, but the chief arbiter, Wilson, quite during the second inning under the fire of the home team.
