

NEGRO SOUTHERN LEAGUE IS FORMED

Montgomery Team Will Play Ex- hibition Game With Crack Indianapolis Club

The local negro baseball team known as the Grey Sox will open the Negro Southern League season in Montgomery on Friday, April 30 May 1 and 2 with the Birmingham Giants. The league is composed of eight clubs, Knoxville, Atlanta, Birmingham, Montgomery, Pensacola, New Orleans and Jacksonville.

The opening dates are Birmingham at Montgomery, New Orleans at Pensacola. Knoxville at Nashville, Jacksonville at Atlanta. President Staples of the local club has gathered together one of the stringest aggregations ball tossers in the South, having returned from a scouting trip Wednesday with three new pitchers. He assures the public of clean baseball and is out for the first pennant of the new league. No games will be played in any town when a Southern league team is playing.

On Tuesday, April 20, the Grey Sox will entertain the strong A. B. C. club of Indianapolis, Ind., the strongest negro club in the country. This game will give the local fans an opportunity of seeing just what kind of club the Grey Sox will be.

The game will be played in Southside Park on South Holt street, just one half block from the car line. The new park has a special grand stand for white patrons.

The Montgomery Advertiser, Montgomery, AL

Sunday, April 18, 1920, Page 5, Column 5