

COLORED SOUTHERN LEAGUE WILL OPEN

Montgomery Grey Sox Will Play Birmingham All-Stars Here Today

Baseball for the colored Southern league, recently organized, will be ushered in this afternoon when the Montgomery Gray Sox clash with the Birmingham All-Stars. The game is slated to start at 3:30 o'clock, and will be played on South Holt street, one block South of Mill street. The Montgomery team last year played sensational ball, and have one of the best colored teams in the South.

Those interested in the league have made elaborate preparations for the opening game. A. J. Stokes and W. W. Matthews, local negro religious leaders, will appear on the grounds and will
