

MONTGOMERY NEGRO TEAM TOPS LEAGUE

Grey Sox Meet New Orleans
Again Today; Jacksonville
Is Runner-Up

The Montgomery Gray Sox, now hold first place in the Negro Southern League with Jacksonville, a close second. The Gray Sox however, have a hard schedule before them for the next ten days, which schedule includes a series of games with Jacksonville and Nashville. The Greys are confident that their ascendancy will be maintained, and are counting upon adding even further to their winning average during the present week.

This afternoon, the Grays will meet the New Orleans aggregation at South Side park. Leaving this evening for Jacksonville for a series of three games returning here Sunday for a game with Nashville Monday. the Sox will go to Atlanta for another series of three games. Sunday's game will be called promptly at 3 p. m. The seating capacity is being greatly enlarged to accommodate white persons, it is announced
