

GREY SOX LEAD THE NASHVILLE PLAYERS

Last Game of Series Called at End of Fourth With Score
Standing Six to Two

In the last game of the series between the Grey Sox and Nashville here yesterday the locals had scored six runs to their opponents two, when the game was called in the first of the fifth inning on account of rain. Young, who was twirling for the locals, had the visiting batters guessing and they were unable to latch on to his offerings.

The Grey Sox leave tomorrow for a road trip of eleven games, with Atlanta and Knoxville. They are not anticipating much trouble with Atlanta, but they will have a bunch of fast playing, hard hitting players to contend with when they tackle the Knoxville team.
