

GREY SOX DEFEATED BIRMINGHAM STARS

Negro Teams Play Jam-up Game of Ball Sunday; Locals
Won, 8 to 1

By heavy hitting and jam up fielding and taking advantage of the bad breaks made by the Birmingham All-Stars, the Grey Sox won the last game of the series yesterday afternoon at Southside Park, 8 to 1, thereby getting the big end of the series, winning two out of the three games played.

The locals soon solved the heretofore puzzling curves of Ziegler and he was driven to the bench in the fourth inning after the locals had made five scores. Juanello who relieved Ziegler held the locals down to one score and pitched a steady game for the visitors.

The locals scored their first two runs in the first frame when McCormick walked, was advanced to second on H. Cunningham's sacrifice and scored on Scales' single. They scored one more in the third when Mason hit for two bases, stole third and scored on a foot of H. Cunningham's scratch to short. They scored two more in the fourth when Preston hit safe and scored on McGavock's hit. McGavock stole third and scored on an error. The locals last score came in the eighth when McCormick hit safe, stole second, stole third and scored on a balk by Juanello.

The visitors only score came in the eighth inning on errors but they threatened to score in the sixth but with two men on bases and one out Wesley made a double play unassisted and retired the side.

The locals played a jam-up game, there being only one error marked up against them. Mason pitched a jam up game and deserved a shut out victory but Carpenter apparently wanted to let the visitors make one score and

In the eighth he let a ball pass and then walked to recover it and the runner went to third on what should have been an easy out.

The Grey Sox will leave this morning for Atlanta, where they will try to even up the defeat handed them by the Black Crackers here a few days ago. Then they will return here Saturday and Sunday for a three game series with Knoxville with a double header billed for next Saturday.

The score:	R	H	E
All Stars	1	2	6
Grey Sox	6	7	1
Batteries:	Ziegler, Juanello	and
