

NEGRO GIANTS TO CLASH WITH B'S SATURDAY

(By Schnee)

Charlie Mills and his St. Louis Negro Giants will be the attraction at North End Park Saturday afternoon when they clash with the B's for the second time this season. In the first game the B's nosed them out 8 to 7.

after a hair raising ninth inning rally. The colored boys were leading 7 to 3, up to the last half of the ninth inning when the B's got their heavy clubs to swinging and before the tar babies knew how it happened the B's had scored five runs and pulled the game out of the fire and ever since they have been howling for revenge and another chance to get a crack at the locals.

The Giants will be accompanied by a large bunch of rooters and when they pull up at North End Park there will be something doing.

The B's have been putting up some snappy ball. Captain Lallarge has sure got them working hard and everybody pulling together. They have got that never-give-up spirit fighting them hard until the last man is out.

That's the old pep and spirit that has pulled many a game out that has seemed hopelessly lost. Don't miss it. This will be the last appearance of Charlie Mills and his tar babies this season.

As a preliminary game the International Shoe Co. and the Carbon Works of the Industrial League will put on a game starting promptly at 1:30.

The line-up:

B's--Fortman, 3b; Witt, 2b; Humpert, 1b; C. LaBarge, ss; Nesbit, rf; P. LaBarge or J. Hoff, lf; Slich, cf; Brinkman, c; Drida or A. Hoff, p.

Giants--Blackwell, cf; Wallace, 3b; Dudley, lf; Bennett or Kennard, c; Dange, 2b; Brooks, rf; MaKado, 1b; Holt, ss; Carr, Finner or Drake, p.

Sunday afternoon the B's will meet the leading Wile-Chipmans at North End Park and Monday afternoon the locals will take on the Ben Millers to play off a protested game of July
