

KUHAGEN FACES DETROIT STARS

---

Bill Will Find Tough Going at Mack Park Sunday.

Sunday's baseball game at Mack Park brings together the Cowpers All-Stars and the Detroit Stars with two twirlers working that should make the argument interesting.

Bill Kuhagen, an old league campaigner in Michigan and Canada, will work for Cowpers if he is right and Cooper, the left-hander from Texas, will be on the mound for the Stars.

If Kuhagen can accomplish the downfall of the Stars he will have

DOWNHILL OF THE SEASONS HE HAS won considerable prestige. Their slugging has not been stayed by any club this season and Bill will find the task confronting him a difficult one to successfully perform.
On the other hand the Stars' pitchers have not been taken for many base hits, the Northways taking the palm for total number last week.

Manager Kline of the Cowpers
has announced his lineup for Sunday's game as follows: Kuhagen, Foster or Tanner, pitcher; St. Aubin
or Rabideau, catcher; Schultz, 1b; Nichols, 2b; A. Dugray, 3b; Malle-ss, Welsh, 1f; Dugray, Garbler, Cobb and Kenny, outfielders. The colored boys will line up the same as last week and the game starts at 3 p. m.

STARS WIN FOURTH STRAIGHT VICTORY

Cowpers Put Up Good Argument, But Lose by 6 to 3

Detroit Stars knocked off the Cowpers at Mack park Sunday before a large crowd, 6 to 3.

Both teams put up a corking good game, the Stars winning the game by mixing hits with Tamler's wildness in the fifth inning, five runs resulting. Cooper, the color-champ's star left-hander, also was wild, but kept the west siders from hitting with men on bases. Tanner held the Stars to five hits, which is very creditable considering the fact that Ted Blount's team boasts seven regulars batting over .350.

Captain "Pete" Hill sent in two runs in the fifth with a beautiful drive to deep center. Jimmy Lyons led the attack for both teams with three hits. L. Dugray has the honor of being the first player of the visiting teams to deliver a home run at Mack park this season, the Cowper outfielder poising the ball out of the park in the sixth inning.

Hewitt and Cooper were the leading stars, "Joe Bill" starting two double plays and making a circus catch in the first inning while knocking on the ground. Score:
