

STARS WIN SERIES FROM CHICAGOANS

Split Even Memorial Day; Homer Only Score of 2nd.

Detroit Stars won the series with Chicago Giants three games to one by taking the afternoon game Memorial Day, Holland besting Taylor in a pitchers' battle, 1 to 0.

Riggins scored Detroit's run in the eighth inning, driving the ball to right field fence for a home run. Holland kept the Chicago hits scattered. The stellar work of the Stars' infield, especially that of Wesley at first base, spoiled any chance the visitors had of scoring.

The morning game was a heavy hitting contest, Chicago winning, 9 to 7. Capt. "Pete" Hill gave Brown and Green, two of his colt pitchers, a chance. Both were hit hard. Beckwith was the leading clubber for the visitors, his three-bagger being one of the longest hits seen at Mack park this season. Eggleston was the big offensive man for Detroit, driving out two doubles and a triple. Scores:
