

DAYTON MARCOS TO MEET STARS

Jim Taylor and his Dayton Marcos, prominent contenders for the colored baseball championship of 1920, will be the guests of Teddy Blount's Detroit Stars at Mack Park Saturday and Sunday.

The Stars are going to have the hardest opposition of the season if advance notices of the Marcos prowess is exemplified by their playing as the Marcos already have defeated the American Giants of Chicago this season and, under the management of Taylor, look strong indeed.

The team's roster includes a number of the best colored players in the business, including the following: Brown, 1b; Taylor, 2b; Cunningham, ss; Leary, 3b; Wingfield, Alexander, Thompson and Britt, outfielders; Lane, Gray and Wilson, pitchers; Shelton and Miller, catchers.

The Stars have acquired the services of Big Bill Gatewood, formerly of the St. Louis Giants, and he will hurl either the Saturday or Sunday game. He is one of the most famous colored pitchers in the game and his services should do much to strengthen the locals' mound staff.

STARS OPEN SERIES WITH DAYTON TEAM

Mack Park Will Be Scene of Game at 3:15 Saturday.

Dayton Marcos and Detroit Stars open a two-game series at Mack

Park this afternoon, the series being one of those on which the colored championship for 1920 will be decided.

The visitors have gained a real reputation this season and are the only aggregation to stop the American Giants, champions of 1919. Last season the Marcos were given a drubbing by the local pastimers, and, with a greatly strengthened team, they come back with the avowed intention of evening the count.

Their pitching staff is a strong one, with Lane, Grey and Wilson, and the whole team is well balanced and ably managed by Jimmy Taylor, who played with the locals a while last season and is a second baseman.

The Stars will use Holland, Gatewood or Thompson on the mound with Petway or Eggleton receiving, and the game will start at 3:15.
