

STARS FACE HARD GAME ON SUNDAY

East's Best Colored Team Opposes the Locals.

Bachrach Giants of Atlantic City and the Detroit Stars will furnish the Sunday afternoon pastime at Mack Park and these clubs, which are among the leading colored aggregations of the country, undoubtedly will show some worthwhile baseball for the fans.

Either "Cannonball" Redding or "String Bean" Williams will be on the mound for the visitors. These are the pair of moundsmen who figured in the 15-inning 2-all tie here in 1918 and no matter which is selected the hurling is bound to be well taken care of. Gatewood or Holland, the two "aces" of the Stars, are candidates for hurling duty for the locals.

Last year when the Detroit Stars invaded Atlantic City, the Bachracks had won seven straight games without allowing their opponents to score, but the Stars halted them and won two in three in the series.

There are many stars in the Bachrach front, including Lundy, who is rated the best colored short-stop in the business. Sunday's game starts at 3 p. m.

RALLY IN EIGHTH GIVES STARS GAME

Detroiters Score Four Runs in That Session to Win 4-3.

After trailing the Bachracks of New York for six innings, Detroit Stars unloaded all their heavy guns on the visitors, with "cannonball" Redding pitching, and won the most exciting game of the season, score 4 to 3.

The easterners scored twice in the second, getting to Gatewood for two singles and two doubles. Another run was put over in the seventh due to Warfield's error. Petway singled to open the seventh for the home team. Gatewood walked and both advanced on Hewitt's sacrifice. Warfield's double scored Petway and Gatewood. Captain "Pete" Hill here turned defeat into victory, hitting the ball over right field fence for a home run.

Riggins, Wesley and Redding were shining lights in the field. Handy was put out of the game in the second inning for disputing a decision of the umpire.
