

STARS MAKE SWEEP OF GIANTS SERIES

Win Final Game From Chicago Team by 8 to 7 Score.

By staging rallies in the last two frames of Wednesday's game the Detroit Stars made a clean sweep of the series with the Chicago Giants, winning the final game 8 to 7.

The visitors pounded McDonald hard, getting 12 hits for 20 bases. Ball was effective against the locals until the eighth, when he could not locate the plate. With two on in the ninth, Gatewood, batting for McDonald, brought in two runs with a clean single, ending the game.

The Detroit Stars and Morgan Wright's colored team will play a benefit game Thursday, the receipts going to the Dunbar hospital. Score:
