

DAYTON MARCOS TO PLAY STARS

These Colored Clubs Open 2- Game Series Saturday.

Dayton Marcos will furnish the opposition for the Detroit Stars in the Saturday and Sunday games at Mack Park, the last series in which the Stars contest here before going on their western trip.

Jim Taylor is the manager of the Dayton outfit and has signed five new players, who have greatly strengthened the club since its early season appearance here, and the team now is very strong, as will be attested by its taking three of five games from the Kansas City Monarchs, just before that team came here to take three in five from the Stars. Dayton also split even with St. Louis in a six-game set.

Bagland and Britt are the pitching stars boasted by the visitors and the former probably will oppose Cooper in Saturday's game, with Britt going against Gatewood or Holland Sunday.

Sunday's game starts at 2.30 to allow the team to catch a 5 o'clock train for St. Louis. Saturday's contest starts at 3 o'clock.

DETROIT STARS WIN ON FORFEIT

Detroit Stars won a forfeit game from the Dayton Marcos at Mack Park Saturday afternoon, when the latter team left the field after the fourth inning.

With two down in the local half of the fourth inning, rain delayed the game a few minutes. When play started, three singles and an error counted three runs for the Stars. The visitors at this stage claimed the grounds too wet to continue and left the field, the umpire awarding a forfeit to the Stars.
