

DAYTON MARCOS PLAY CHICAGO

Dayton Marcos and Chicago Giants will play at Mack park Saturday and Sunday afternoon in the absence of the Detroit Stars who are on a western trip. Sunday the contest will be the second game of a double header offering the Max A. C. and Michigan Central teams furnishing the preliminary at 1:30.

These two teams now are rated well in the National Colored baseball league. In their last game the Marcos and Giants played a two-all tie, with Britt of the Marcos's opposing Taylor of the Giants, and these same hurlers are booked to oppose on Sunday.

The Giants have broken even so far this season playing road games and gave the Stars a stiff argument in their recent series. Marcos just have taken a series from the Kansas City Monarchs.

DAYTON-CHICAGO SERIES TO START

Colored Teams From These Cities at Mack Park Saturday.

Dayton Marcos and Chicago Giants open a two-game series at Mack park Saturday afternoon, the game to figure in the National Colored Baseball league championship race.

Both of these teams have been seen here in competition with the Detroit Stars, who now are on the road, and created a favorable impression, playing a bang-up article of ball. They boast strong pitching staffs and their series should be most interesting.

The announced batteries for Saturday's game are Regland and Webster for Dayton, and Luther and Duncan for Chicago. These hurlers are capable performers who are liable to shutout any club at any time. A pitchers' duel appears to be in prospect.

The same teams also will furnish the second game of a double-header Sunday.

DAYTON MARCOS BLANK CHICAGO

Visiting Teams Stage 11-Inning
Game at Mack Park Saturday.

Dayton Marcos defeated Chicago Giants 2 to 0 in 11-inning at Mack park Saturday afternoon, playing in the absence of the Detroit Stars.

Branham and Luther staged a hurlers' duel, the former allowing but three hits during the session. Dayton's winning tallies were the result of a walk by Taylor, Hecker's double and a single by Alexander and Melarin's sacrifice fly. The same teams will play a double header at Mack park Sunday.
