

DOUBLE HEADER AT MACK PARK

Dayton Marcos and Chicago Giants Play Big Game Today.

Sunday afternoon, at Mack park, a double-header baseball offering is billed with the Dayton Marcos and Chicago Giants playing the second game of their series at 3:15, and two local clubs, the Ajax A. C. and Michigan Centrals, clashing in the 1:30 contest.

The out-of-town teams are in the National Colored Baseball league and are very evenly matched. The game Saturday proved their worth as pastimers and both have given the Detroit Stars hard battles in games this season.

Britt, of the Marcos, and Taylor, of the Giants, are slated to oppose in Sunday's game. These hurlers are rated the "aces" of their respective clubs and the last time they opposed figured in a 2-all tie. The Giants just have returned from the east, where they won seven in nine games. The Marcos and Giants have broken even in games played this season and are settling the question of supremacy on a neutral diamond.

Detroit Stars are in Chicago, opposing Rube Foster's American Giants.

Detroit Free Press, Detroit, MI

Sunday, August 29, 1920, Page 23, Column 4