

CARDINALS TAKE FINAL CONTEST FROM GIANTS, 6-0

Schupp's Slants Puzzle Negroes, While Barnstormers Get to Gatewood for Five Runs in Seventh Inning.

The Cardinal barnstormers won the final game and the series from the St. Louis Negro Giants yesterday at the Giants' Park. The score was 6 to 0. Ferdinand Schupp, the Cards' deceptive left-hander, handing out a row of ciphers to the hard-hitting charges of Charley Mills. The contest was hard fought until the seventh inning when the Cardinals scored five runs and clinched the verdict. Until that time the score was 1 to 0 in the barnstormers' favor.

Schupp pitched masterly throughout the contest, fanning twelve of Mills' hitters and walking only two. He was supported brilliantly, the lone error being contributed by Jacques Fournier. The Giants committed four errors, three of which aided the Cardinals to their runs.

The Cardinals scored a run in the second on Dillhoefer's double, an error by the third baseman and Schupp's two ply swat. In the seventh five hits, including a two bagger, and two errors gave the big leaguers five runs.
