

7,000 FANS WATCH A. B. C.'s WIN AND LOSE WITH MONARCHS

The Kansas City Monarchs and A. B. C.'s split even in a double header at Washington park, Sunday afternoon.

The local colored club grabbed the first encounter Sunday, 6 to 2 when McClure twirled in real style for the Mackey's catching was the big feature A.'s. He was given dandy support of the afternoon. The playing of Jefferson, outfielder with the Indianapolis club, went a long way toward aiding the A.'s to grab the scrap. Jefferson also cut in with some classy playing in the second game.

Dismukes was on the mound against the K. C. outfit in the second contest. All the breaks of the game went against this veteran, and the A.'s lost, 6 to 3. A catch by Day of a high liner over second brought the big hand from the crowd of 7,000.

(First Game)
K. C.	2	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	—2
A. B. C's	4	1	0	0	1	0	0	0	*	—6
Batterise—Donaldson, Rogan and Rodriguez; McClure and Mackey. Umpire—Gelsel.
(Second Game)
K. C.	4	0	0	0	3	0	2	0	0	—6
A. B. C's	0	0	3	0	0	0	0	0	0	—3
Batteries—Curry and Rodriguez; Dismukes and Mackey. Umpire—Gelsel.

Indianapolis Freeman, Indianapolis, IN

Saturday, August 7, 1920, Page 3, Column 4