

Sensational Joe Hewitt, short stop of the Detroit Stars, and a big factor in Tenny Blunts band of Sluggers.

First Baseman Wesley, the big Texan of the Detroit Stars, noted for his long drives and strong defensive work.

RILE JUMPS A. B. C's

Rile, the pitching Ace of the A. B. C's, who started the season with the A's, then jumped to a New York Team, and was again secured by the locals, like the Arab, has folded his tent, also one of the team's suits and other things and left for parts unknown.

Under the League rules Rile is ineligible to play with any other Club in the Circuit.

Out-fielder, Shively, is also out of the line up.

Manager Taylor has signed five players from San Antonio, Tex.

Indianapolis Freeman, Indianapolis, IN

Saturday, July 17, 1920, Page 3, Column 5