

A. B. C.'s AND CUBANS IN SECOND SERIES

The A. B. C.'s and Cubans opened up their second series at Muncie, Ind., last Saturday, the Cubans winning 8 to 7. Ben Taylor and Charleston pitching for the locals. Sunday, at Indianapolis, rain ended first game after five innings had been played, the Cubans winning, 5 to 1.

Monday, smiling Dismukes, had his underhand ball working to perfection, letting the pesky Islanders down with five singles and no runs.

SUNDAY'S GAME

Cubans		AB	H	O	A
Jimenez, 2	2	1	3	0
Rios, 8	3	1	1	1
Barco, cf	2	0	1	0
Guerra, rf	3	2	0	0
Dreke, lf	3	2	0	0
Pedrosa, 1	2	1	3	0
Herrera, 3	2	1	2	1
Ahron, c	2	0	4	2
LeBanc, p	2	0	1	0
Totals		21	7	16	5
A. B. C's		AB	H	O	A
Clark, 8	3	1	0	0
Jacobs, cf	3	2	2	0
Charleston, cf	3	2	2	0
B. Taylor, 1	2	0	5	0
Powell, c	2	0	2	0
Day, 3	2	0	3	1
Jefferson, lf	2	1	1	0
Francis, 2	2	1	0	1
Johnson, p	2	0	1	0
Totals		21	6	15	5
Cubans		3	0	0	2
A. B. C's		0	1	0	1

Errors—Baro, Johnson. Two-base hit—Jiminez. Sacrifice hits—Jiminez, Pedarso. Bases on balls—Off Johnson, 2. Stolen base—Jiminez. Hit by Pitcher—By Johnson (Herrera, Le Banc). Wild Pitch—Johnson, 1. Struck out—By Johnson 1; by LeBanc, 5.
Umpire Giesel.

Indianapolis Freeman, Indianapolis, IN

Saturday, July 17, 1920, Page 3, Column 5