

GIANTS WIN FROM ST. LOUIS

Wickware and Drake Stage Fierce Go With Honors Resting With the Veteran Heater

CHICAGO, ILL.—Drake, the young pitching star of the St. Louis Giants, found himself up against an awful bore last Sunday, when he essayed to do things to the Foster crowd, with Wickware, the hero of many a tough struggle opposed to him on the slab.

The Windy City folks jumped right out in the fist stanza and proceeded to put the game on ice, egged on, of course by ragged support at the receiving end of the Mound City battery dished out to his mate. The visiting infield was thrown off their stride as a result of the catchers defection and displayed streaks of both good and bad, mostly the latter. Drake pitched a good game and was entitled to a better deal than he received. Finding his support all to the fag, the pitcher went to it with renewed energy. In each frame and succeeded in handling five different chances, all but three of the total assists of the whole team.

Wickware was master of the situation at all stages and convinced the ten thousand fans who watched his effort that he is but a whit below the form that made him the talk of the base ball world some seasons ago.

The St. Louisans staged a hitting rally in the ninth furnishing a welcome thrill, but the flash was squelched, the game ending 5 to 2, with the Windy City gang the winner. The score
