

STARS WIN SERIES FROM CHICAGO

The Detroit Stars won the series with Chicago Giants three games to one, by taking the afternoon game Memorial Day, Holland beating Taylor in a pitcher's battle 1 to 0.

Riggins scored Detroit's run in the 5th inning, driving the ball to right field fence for a home run. Holland kept the Chicago hits scattered. The stellar work of the Stars' infield, especially that of Wesley at first base, spoiled any chance the visitors had of scoring.

The morning game was a heavy hitting contest, Chicago winning a 9 to 7 count. Capt. "Pete" Hill gave Brown and Green, two of his collar pitchers, a chance. Both were hit hard. Beckwith was the leading clubber for the visitors, his three-bagger being one of the longest hits seen at Mack Park this season. Eggleston was the big offensive man for Detroit, driving out two doubles and a triple. Scores:

Afternoon Game.
Detroit Stars	3	0	0	0	0	0	1	—	1
Chicago Giants	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	—	0
Pitchers—Stars: Holland and Eggleston; Giants: Taylor and Beckwith.
Morning Game.
Detroit Stars	1	2	0	0	0	0	1	3	—	7
Chicago Giants	0	2	0	0	2	0	0	0	—	5
Pitchers—Brown, Green and Eggleston; Waters, Jenkins and Beckwith.

Indianapolis Freeman, Indianapolis, IN

Saturday, June 12, 1920, Page 4, Columns 1 and 2