

A. B. C.'s TO TRAIN IN BIRMINGHAM, ALA.

INDIANAPOLIS A. B. C.'s BASEBALL CLUB WILL BEGIN SPRING TRAINING.

Team Goes to Birmingham, Ala., Monday, March 29.

On Monday, March 29, the Indianapolis A. B. C. baseball club will hike out for Birmingham, Ala., where they will begin their spring training, so announces C. L. Taylor, owner and manager of the club. After taking several weeks of hard grinding, Mr. Taylor and his bunch will return home, playing games on the way. It is up to Manager Taylor to organize a club for fast company, as the Negro National Baseball league will be composed of clubs of top speed who will play a great argument of ball from the start in order to win the pennant.

Stars With the A.'s
Some of the best colored ball play-ern in the country will be seen in the line-up of C. I.'s this year. The club this year will be boasting of the strongest colored outfield in the country. Charleston, the "black Ty Cobb," will hold down center for the A.'s, Shively, left, and Owens, a hard-hitting player from Pittsburgh, right.

Hi Dismukes, Johnson, Jeffries, Rile, Dickson and Hagland the local colored club will be well taken care of in the pitching end of the game, while Powell, Webster, and Murray can more than do their share behind the bat. Taylor has a swarm of infielders in line. Ben Taylor will probably hold down first; Houston looks like the second sacker, and Clark is expected to be seen at short. Day, Mashaw, Dewitt and Longware are out for third base. All of these players will make the trip South.

The A. B. C.'s will play their home games at Washington Park when the Indians are on the road.
