

Spring Valley, Ill., April 30.
Gilkerson's Union Giants' base ball team assemble here for spring training and Glik has succeeded in lining up a fast collection on players.
The Giants were hit hard by the new circuit, as "Rube" Currie, Boyd, Hill, McNear and the American Giants' star on the pitching mound, Jack Marshall, were all lifted from this club.
After a ten days' work out the club will start west opening at Dubuque, Iowa, about the 22d of May. The Unions will be located at Lakeview, Iowa, and their home grounds is Lakewood Park. They are about 100 miles from Omaha, Nebr., the same distance from Sioux City, not far from Des Moines on the N. W. R. R. The Unions have the following men on the roster: Coleman c, Turner 1b, Fields 2b, Williams ss, Lowe 3b, ~~Stincham~~ rf, Lynch cf, Blackburn, Hardy, Smith and Poston pitchers, G. Jones utility, W. Jones U. infielder.

Indianapolis Freeman, Indianapolis, IN

Saturday, May 1, 1920, Page 2, Column 3