

A. B. C.'S WIN MONDAY'S GAME.

Although the All-Stars grabbed one more hit than the local colored club, they failed to bunch them and lost Monday's game, 7 to 3. Taylor's team counted six runs in the third inning and then played good ball to keep the Cubans from knotting the score.

Shively, left fielder, connected with a triple and single for the Indianapolis club. Ben Taylor, Jeffries and Clark accounted for the other six hits.

The score:

A. B. C.	0	0	6	0	0	0	1	0	7	8	2
Cubans	0	0	1	0	0	2	0	0	3	9	2

Batteries—Rile, Ragland, and Powell; Valdez and Abrou.

Indianapolis Freeman, Indianapolis, IN

Saturday, May 15, 1920, Page 4, Column 2