

A. B. C.'s DROP FIRST GAME TO BACHARACH GIANTS

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., August 30.—Poor base running cost the A. B. C.'s the first game of their series with the Bacharach Giants 7 to 5. Jeffries started the game and proved ineffective. McClure finished in good style, except when he let up and allowed Pierce, Bacharach first baseman, to drive one over the left field fence for a home run. Both clubs played a great fielding game. The score:

A. B. C.'s	0	0	0	0	5	0	0	0	0	—5	9	2
Bach. G.	3	2	0	0	1	0	0	1	0	—7	8	2

Batteries—Jeffries, McClure and Powell. Mackey; "Stringbean" Williams, Ryan and Yank.

Indianapolis Freeman, Indianapolis, IN

Saturday, September 11, 1920, Page 7, Column 1