

A. B. C'S ARE READY TO MEET CHICAGO GIANTS IN BIG DOUBLE-HEADER

The A. B. C's are ready for their double-header with the Chicago Giants tomorrow afternoon at Washington park and C. J. Taylor, manager of the Indianapolis club, expects to get an early start in the Colored Baseball League by copping both contests. The first game will start at 2 o'clock.

After spending three weeks in the south, the Indianapolis team is in first-class condition. While on their spring trip, the A's won seventeen, tied two and lost one game, defeating some of the best colored teams in the south. Taylor says he has the best club that has ever played under his management.

The A. B. C's will be the attraction at Washington park on the Saturdays, Sundays and holidays that the Indians are on the road.
