

A, B, C'S AND CUBAN STARS CLASH IN FOURTH COMBAT

The Cuban All-Stars and A, B, C's meet in the fourth game of their five game series this afternoon at Washington park, the contest starting at 3:15. The islanders and A's hook up in the final scrap Wednesday afternoon.

Although the All-Stars grabbed one more hit than the local colored club, they failed to bunch them and lost Monday's game, 7 to 2. Taylor's team counted six runs in the third inning and then played good ball to keep the Cubans from knotting the score.

Silvety, left fielder, connected with a triple and single for the Indianapolis club. Ben Taylor, Jefferies and Clark accounted for the other six hits. Monday's win was the fifth straight for the A, B, C's. They copped a double-header from the Chicago Giants in the season's opening and three from the islanders. The score:

A	B	C	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	7	8	2
Cubans			0	0	1	0	0	2	0	0	3	0	2

Batteries: Rice, Ragland and Powell; Val dea and Abreu.

Indianapolis News, Indianapolis, IN

Tuesday, May 11, 1920, Page 20, Column 1