

A. B. C.'S TO PLAY SERIES WITH ST. LOUIS GIANTS

One of the largest crowds of the season is expected to see the A. B. C.'s and St. Louis Giants clash in a double-header at Washington park Sunday, which will open the final home series appearance of Taylor's club in the Western Colored League. Single games will be played Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The first contest Sunday is scheduled to start at 2 o'clock.

After the series here, the A's take to the road, meeting the American Giants at Chicago and then open a series at Kansas City. It is probable that the local colored nine will play an all-professional team here October 10.

Sunday will be the first appearance of the St. Louis Giants at Washington park this season and it will give the local fans an opportunity to get a glimpse at this speedy aggregation of colored stars.
