

Giant Star to Pitch Against
A. B. C.'s in Sunday's Game

ART NEHF.

Jack Hendricks's all professional team, with Art Nehf, the Giant star, in the box and Mike Kelly, of the Senators, behind the bat, will mix again with Taylor's A. B. C.'s at Washington park, Sunday afternoon. Nehf lives at Washington, Ind. Formerly he played with the Terre Haute team of the Central League and in 1915 went to the Boston Braves. In 1919 the Braves sold the Hoozier to the Giants for $55,000. The A. B. C.'s will have a lineup of stars in the field and the fans are expecting a scrappy game. Hendricks's team will be much the same as the one that defeated the colored stars last Sunday.

A. B. C.'S TRIM PROS.

Art Nehf, the Giants' $55,000 pitcher, breezed along in fine shape for seven innings in the game between Jack Hendricks' all professionals and the colored A. B. C.'s, at Washington park, Sunday. With one run in at the start of the eighth inning, the A. B. C.'s filled the bases, ready to be cleaned by Ben Taylor's triple. Taylor scored on Hewett's single. The five runs were enough, and the A. B. C.'s won, 6 to 4. Score:
