

SOUTHERN LEAGUE

Nashville, Tenn., April 9.—The Nashville White Sox of the Southern Baseball League had their first workout last Sunday, and Manager Marshall Garrett, better known as McGraw, was well pleased with the splendid showing that the regular players made, and says when Albert Street, the greatest young S. S. in the country, arrives from Washington, D. C., to report for duty on April 15 and James Ellis, the great third sacker, arrives from Indianapolis and Ed McCrow, the headiest young receiver the South has ever known, reports from Hopkinsville, Ky., the Nashville White Sox will have an easy sailing in the Southern League pennant race and the lineup will be: McCrow, c; Street, s. s.; Stratton, 2d b. and capt.; Ellis, 3d b.; Meyers, l. f.; Hurt, 1st b.; Nesbitt, c. f. and p.; Johnson, r. f. and c.; McCall, r. f.; Mason, p.; McCarver, p.; Williams, p.; Merritt, p.

Chicago Defender, Chicago, IL

Saturday, April 10, 1920, Page 11, Column 2