

Foster Loses in the 12th

Kansas City, Mo., Sunday.—Playing before the largest crowd that has ever witnessed a game at American Association park here, the Foster crew demonstrated that they are the gamest set of ball players that ever trod on baseball sod. After coming from far behind on Saturday and winning out, they were compelled to face the same ordeal on Sunday. Rogan was master of the situation at all stages of the contest, hurling and batting in fiendish fashion. Tom Williams did not loom up as the Tom of former days.

Malarcher's judgment went bad on two plays and in the end they loomed up like a mountain; then Jim Brown, doing emergency first base duty, put another rock in the pathway of the Chicagoans and College Boy Tom aided. At that the Chi crew pulled up to even scores and for several frames they carried so much fight to the westerners that it was hard to figure who would win. In the 12th frame, after would win. In the 12th inning Donaldson had slammed out a drive. Rogan stepped into one of Marshall's shoots, the later replacing Williams, sending over the winning run. The score:
