

GRAY SOX WIN ONE, LOSE TWO
 Knoxville, Tenn., Aug. 6.—The Knoxville Giants lost the first game of a three game series, but managed to annex the following two from the Montgomery Gray Sox. There was plenty of pep in all three games. The Dixie Jazz Band furnished the music. These victories placed Knoxville in first place and Montgomery in second. Steel Arm Dickey, with 25 straight victories to his credit, suffered his first defeat of the season. His failure to field a bunt, his wild throw to first and a dropped fly ball by Fielder Mosby, all in the first game, gave the Sox a 3 run lead. It looked as though the Giants might win with the bases full, but Mason tightened. That was in the first game. July 31 Dickey came back and made good by defeating the visitors. The scores:

 GRAY SOX 3 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—5 2
 KNOX. GIANTS 1 1 1 0 0 0 0 0 0—3 5 5
 Batteries—Dickey and Saunders; Mason and Williams.

Chicago Defender, Chicago, IL

Saturday, August 7, 1920, Page 9, Columns 3 and 4