The Giants returned home Friday after a strenuous trip in Kansas City, where they won two and lost two, the fifth game being thrown out because the umpire allowed two runs to score on a ball that had hit him. After a day's rest they journey Saturday to Gary, where they lost to the Bacharach Giants, 11 to 4. Torrenti's home run featured the game.

Chicago Defender, Chicago, IL

Saturday, August 14, 1920, Page 6, Column 3