

BACHARACHS QUIT FIELD: GAME FORFEITED: DETROIT FANS SORE

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 4.—The Detroit Stars were given a forfeited game when, with the score against them in the first half of the ninth, Pierce hit one down the third base line which went foul and was called so by the umpire. This enraged the team so that a squabble resulted, much to the discomfiture of the fans, who were hoping that the game would end so that many could get to work. Yet the easterners squabbled and finally the men walked off the field. This is the Bacharach's last game of the series and it is thought by many of the fans that the longer they stay away from Detroit the better the game will be. Redding struck out nine men, but was hit hard throughout the game. The six hits gathered off Gatewood were timely, three coming in the second and three in the eighth. The score:

Bacharach Giants.....	0	2	0	0	0	0	0	2	—4
Detroit Stars.....	2	0	0	1	1	0	1	1	—6

Errors—Eggleston, Riggins. Runs—Marselle, Rojo, Medro, Handy—4; Hewitt, Warfield, Lyons 2, Moore 2—6. Two-base hits—Moore 2, Redding. Home run—Lyons. Sacrifice hit—Lyons. Stolen bases—Marselle, Handy. Hit by pitcher—Eggleston. Struck out—By Redding 9, by Gatewood 2. Double plays—Redding to Pierce, Hewitt to Riggins.

Chicago Defender, Chicago, IL

Saturday, August 14, 1920, Page 6, Column 4