

HILDALES DROP 14-INNING GAME
 Darby, Pa., Saturday.—It took 14 innings of nerve racking playing for Lit Bros. to beat Hilldale for a chance, it coming as the first defeat in the last eight games played by Edward Bolden's ball team. Slaughter has been troublesome to the Hilldales for the past two seasons, and while he was touched up in a rather free manner in this game, his teammates were doing more damage to Whitworth, who was not in his usual good form. It was anybody's game for the last six frames, and both sides had opportunity after opportunity snuffed out in the last part of the game. The whole complexion of the battle was changed when George Johnson allowed Bakey to go from second base home, with him holding the ball and giving the store boys the desired edge and to which they added one more for good measure when Harkness sent Sheehan home with a healthy single to center.
