

Jeffries Checks Cubans and A. B. C.'s Win, 3-2

Indianapolis, Tuesday.—Jeffries replaced Williams with the bases full in the eighth inning and after forcing in a run, checked a rally of the Cuban Stars and the A. B. C.'s came out on top, 3 to 2, in a snappy game at Washington park. Williams breezed along in good style until he became wild and walked three men in the eighth. Valdes pitched a nice game for the islanders, being replaced by LeBlanc in the same inning.
