New York, Feb. 13.—Santop, late of the marine corps and catcher of the Royal Giants, was heard from recently by the sporting editor. "Top" was in the Lone Star state looking for more baseball talent in and around Fort Worth. It may be recalled that Texas has produced some wonders in the world's famous sport and, as the old saying goes, there still may be some good fish in the sea. However, the strength of the Giants this summer will tell the story.

Chicago Defender, Chicago, IL

Saturday, February 14, 1920, Page 9, Column 2