

REDDING TRIMS WILLIAMS

Brooklyn, N. Y., July 16.—John Connors' Bacharach Giants and the Lincoln Giants broke even in a double-leader at Ebbets' Field last Sunday, the Bacharachs winning the first game by the score of 5 to 0 and the Lincolns the dinner engagement, 7 to 5. Fifteen thousand persons witnessed the game. In the first game Cannon Ball Dick Redding outpitched Joe Williams, not allowing Joe's boys to score, while Dick's boys piled up five runs. A demonstration took place when the umpire called play ball and the batteries of the opposing teams were announced that reminded one of the old Olympic Field days when Dick was the mainstay of the Royal Giants, who occasionally hooked up with Joe in pitching duels. It was Dick's day and he pitched airtight ball. In the last game Treadwell started for the Atlantic City boys, but was yanked out in the third inning and was replaced by Ryan after the Lincolns had piled up four runs. The sunset tilt went to the Harlem boys by the score of 4 to 5. Archer for the Lincolns pitched splendid ball.

Chicago Defender, Chicago, IL

Saturday, July 17, 1920, Page 9, Column 3