

HILDALE VS. TESREAU
New York, July 23.—What promises to be a banner attraction this Sunday in semi-pro circles will be staged this Sunday at Dyckman oval between the Hildales of Darby, Pa., and Jeff Tesreau's Bears. There will be two games, the first to start at 2 o'clock sharp. In the last game Whitworth, formerly with Rube Foster's American Giants, will pitch against Tesreau. Cockrell will oppose Burke, the former Brooklyn National League twirler, in the opener. Other prominent members of the Smoke Town crew are Downs, who appeared at the oval last season when the team appeared here, and Harber and Francis of last season's American Giants.

Chicago Defender, Chicago, IL

Saturday, July 24, 1920, Page 9, Column 6