

AMERICAN GIANTS ON A RAMPAGE

Foster's rejuvenated crew downs all competitors, winning six straights against three of their toughest foe.

The work of the American Giants in the past week points very much to them, not only as the class of the new baseball circuit, but the dazzling work of the teams has once more established a strong belief on the part of the devotees of baseball here that Chicago has a team that can be depended upon for those same winning conquests that have surrounded their efforts in the past. The Foster team perhaps has the strongest pitching staff in the country today, and their infield has the edge on all so far seen for the present. Although the Detroit Stars and A. B. C.'s inner works are right onto the heels of the locals. The outfield may not lead, but they compare favorably with any on the circuit; but in speed of limbs, inside knowledge of play and general efficiency it would appear that the local team has an edge on its rivals that is going to be stubbornly contested before supremacy is finally yielded. The Giants downed the strong Monarchs in a five game series, put the bees to buzzing in the bonnets of the Logan Squares of the Chicago league and trounced the Cubans. They lock horns with the Magnets of the Chicago league Sunday and a spirited go is expected. The Americans leave town Sunday night and will shy off to St. Louis, where they fight it out for five days against the St. Louis Giants. The Mound City crew has a big club this year and have been making it awfully warm for all teams of the new circuit. They went 11 innings last week against the A. B. C.s and only succumbed after 11 innings of the fiercest kind of fighting by the score of 1 to 0. The Americans return here and their next league opponents will be C. I. Taylor's A. B. C.s who will show up here for Sunday, June 13.
