

HILDALE IN BROOKLYN

Brooklyn, June 4.—Brooklyn and Long Island fans will have the opportunity this Sunday, June 6, to see Edward Bolden's famous Hilldale team in action, when they cross bats with the St. Agathas, a strong semi-pro team, at St. Agatha's oval, 50th street and 9th avenue, in a big double header. This visit will mark the first appearance of the Slow Town boys in this city, and from a casual glance at their line-up, they have a splendid opportunity to bag both games. The line-up consists of Barber, formerly of Rube Foster's American Giants; Downs, Allen, Santop, the famous catcher formerly with the Royal Giants; Home Run Johnson, Francis, formerly with Eube's crew; Roberts, Yank, Whitworth, Cockrell, Flournoy and Stark. Among the stars on the white boys' team are Pitchers Ornsby and Johnson, sensational George, who plays third base; Bert Daniels and Jack O'Connor, who was with the Cubs in 1916. Hardly a fan desiring to attend the games to see their old favorites in action should take the West End express from Times Square and get off at 50th street. walk two blocks to the oval.

Chicago Defender, Chicago, IL

Saturday, June 5, 1920, Page 9, Column 3