

Court Decision Favors Bacharach
Philadelphia, Pa., June 11.—Judges Martin and Staake in court No. 5 last week rendered a decision that Dick Lundy, the little shortstop of the Bacharachs, can continue playing for his team until further orders from the court. The Hilldale club brought suit for a preliminary injunction to stop Lundy from playing with rival clubs. Altogether it is claimed Lundy signed three contracts to play this year. Up to the present time the New York team has the better of the argument.
