

Magnets Are Easy for Giants

"Rube" Foster's rejuvenated charges, led by the chief himself, pulled everything on the Magnets of the Chicago League, except stealing bases in reverse direction. Tom Williams had one of his good days on and the leaguers were at his mercy all the way. Conlon, the crack southpaw of the Chicago prairies and big league tryout, released a pretty good mechanical show of heaving, but when put to the test on inside play the southpaw went up and his mates went with him. The Americans piled up enough stolen bases, pulled enough bunts and squeezed enough runs across the pan to last for a season. The Giants left for St. Louis Sunday night, where they were scheduled for five games. If they annex the series they will have won 19 straight games. Sunday, June 13. C. L. Taylor's A. B. C.'s with Oscar Charleston, Day, Ben Taylor and other stars will tackle the American Giants at Schorling park. Score:

AM. GIANTS					MAGNETS
	R.	H.	P.	A.		H.	P.	A.
Reese, lf...	1	1	4	0	McKitt'k, ss.	1	1	3	1
Mal'cher, 3b.	1	2	1	2	Heckh'rt, rf.	0	0	1	0
DeMoss, 2b.	1	1	4	3	Scanlan, 3b.	0	1	1	1
Torrentti, cf.	2	1	1	0	T. Jam'n, 2b.	0	1	2	3
J. Brown, c.	1	1	4	0	H. Jam'a, cf.	0	1	1	1
Gans, rf...	2	3	2	0	Murphy, lf.	0	0	1	0
Grant, 1b.	1	1	7	1	Paul, 1b.	0	0	0	1
B. Will'a, ss.	1	1	4	5	Rehor, c.	0	1	0	0
T. Will'a, p.	2	1	0	2	Conlon, p.	0	1	0	4
Totals...12 12 27 13					Totals...1 6 24 11
A. Giants.....0 2 0 0 3					Magnets.....0 0 0 0 0
Errors—A. Giants, 3; Magnets, 1					Two-base hits—Malarcher, J. Brown, Grant, Rehor. Double plays—H. Jamelson-Rehor; B. Williams-DeMoss Grant. Bases on balls—Off Williams, 5; off Conlon, 5. Struck out—By Williams, 3; by Conlon, 4. Umpires—Goeckel and St. John.

Chicago Defender, Chicago, IL

Saturday, June 12, 1920, Page 9, Column 5