

Bacharach's Opening

Atlantic City, N. J., June 11.—Not discouraged with the trimming handed them the day previous in a double-header by Heinie Zimmerman's Bronx Giants, at Bronx field, New York City, the Bacharach Giants opened the season here on Decoration day with a double victory over Heinie's team before a crowd of 10,000 fans. Ceremonies for the opening game of the season as used by the big leagues were gone through without a mishap. Mayor Bacharach of this city, after whom the team is named, threw out the first ball amid great applause, after which the slaughter of the New York boys took place. The home team has booked many splendid attractions for the fans, and some real games can be looked forward to.

Chicago Defender, Chicago, IL

Saturday, June 12, 1920, Page 9, Column 5