

Detroit, Mich.—Detroit Stars won a fast 10-inning contest from the Dayton Maroons at Mack Park Thursday afternoon, 5 to 4. It was also the locals' third game in a series of four from the visitors. Gateway's triple, followed by a single from Warfield, tied the score in the ninth inning. In the final chapter, with two out, Longwell singled and was sent around the circuit on safeties by Gatewood and Warfield, winning the game.

Chicago Defender, Chicago, IL

Saturday, June 19, 1920, Page 9, Column 3