The Bacharach Giants and Jeff Tesreau's Bears will be the attraction again this Sunday in a big double header at Dyckman Oval. In their last meeting two weeks ago each won a victory. The Bacharachs have been considerably strengthened in the past week and are sure to put up a stiff game against the Heights boy. Tesreau has twice beaten Connor's team, and no doubt Redding will be sent in this Sunday to keep his honor from making it three in a row. The jazz

Chicago Defender, Chicago, IL

Saturday, May 22, 1920, Page 9, Column 4